FOR RELEASE ON RECEIPT

MILDRED CONSTANTINE AND ROBERT T. BUCK, JR. NAMED 1980 MAY SHOW JURORS

Mildred Constantine and Robert T. Buck, Jr. have been chosen as jurors for The Cleveland Museum of Art's 1980 May Show, the annual juried exhibition of work by artists and craftsmen of Ohio's Western Reserve. Constantine will be a member of the crafts jury and Buck will jury in the other categories, including painting, sculpture, graphics, photography, and electric. This year's May Show will run from April 16 through May 18.

Constantine is a consultant in art, architecture, and design and an instructor at the Parsons School of Design and was formerly curator in the department of architecture and design at the Museum of Modern Art in New York. She holds an M.A. from New York University and has published numerous arts-related books and articles. She is a member of the College Art Association and appeared as a guest lecturer at The Cleveland Museum of Art during the 1977 Fiberworks exhibition.

Buck is the director of the Albright-Knox Gallery in Buffalo, N.Y., and former director of the Gallery of Art at Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri. He holds an M.A. from New York University and has taught at the University of Toledo, Washington University, and the State University of New York at Buffalo.

The annual exhibition is open to artists who are living, work, or were born in the 13 counties of the Western Reserve: Ashland, Ashtabula, Cuyahoga, Erie, Geauga, Huron, Lake, Lorain, Mahoning, Medina, Portage, Summit, and Trumbull.
